RECENT PROJECTS

Miner Health Matters Mine Safety & Health Administration (MSHA)

JSL led MSHA's Miner Vaccination Outreach Program (MVOP), organizing vaccination clinics, expanding offerings to include test kits and flu shots, and increasing educational outreach through virtual and in-person formats. Post-COVID, JSL and MSHA transitioned MVOP into a broader Miner Health Matters campaign, addressing topics like heat illness and mental health. JSL's strategic communications and program management contributed to 57 events across 13 states, significantly exceeding the program's initial objectives.

Communications Advisory Assistance MSHA

During a key administration changeover, JSL supported MSHA Leadership with communicating substantive policy changes to personnel and the regulated community. JSL also provided recommendations on key documents including improvements to usability, readability, and conversion to mobile design.
